Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven. (Matthew 5:16)

ANTHEM – I saw the Lord

John Stainer

I saw the Lord, sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. O Trinity! O Unity! Be present as we worship Thee, And with the songs that angels sing Unite the hymns of praise we bring. Amen.

Ancient Future Worship Service

Ancient-Future Worship applies early Christian worship models and applies them to the church in a postmodern time, weaving together Biblically-based resources and practices from across time and around the world. Ancient-Future Worship is not a presentation or concert. Ancient-Future Worship engages people in Christian worship that honours the person and work of Jesus Christ and acknowledges the mystery and reality of the unity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as three persons in one Godhead.

The June 2nd service will include Lectio Divina or "holy reading", which represents a way of praying with Scripture that calls one to study, ponder, listen, pray, sing and rejoice from God's Word. It is a contemplative practice. Although Lectio Divina is often associated with the medieval church, it is rooted in Hebrew and early church worship. Our Scripture focus on June 2nd will be some of the key texts of the Minor Prophets, which will be studied in depth during the summer Bible Study Series. We will also be celebrating Holy Communion in a communal setting.

On Wednesday, June 2, 2010 at 7:30 PM, come and worship...engage the Unchanging God in a changing world. (Service to be held in Cameron Hall.)

On SATURDAY, JUNE 5th at 3:00 to dusk
