NEW MEMBERS

Please join us in welcoming the following new members in our Friendship Room after the service.

Michael Fraser

Michael's early experience with "church" was in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. He attended there with his family until he was seven when his mother and he and his siblings left. For thirty years Michael did not attend church.

Some months ago, Michael had an amazing experience in which he felt the compelling presence of the Holy Spirit and was led to look for a church to attend. He and his friend Teresa found Yorkminster Park on the internet and joined us one Communion Sunday. That morning Michael was welcomed by members of the congregation and ministerial staff. He began to read the Bible daily, he met with Peter and Cheryl over a number of weeks and made the decision to be baptized.

Since that first day, Michael has attended church regularly. This past winter he volunteered in the Out of the Cold program and is continuing to seek God's guidance in searching for areas in which to serve.

Catherine O'May

Catherine O'May was born and raised in Port Glasgow, a small town near Paisley, Scotland. As an infant she was baptized in the Presbyterian Church and there entered the faith as an adult at the age of sixteen. About forty years ago, Catherine came to Canada. Her first introduction to Yorkminster Park was in 1974. She attended the evening service occasionally and over the years her attendance became more frequent.

Catherine retired in September 2008 after thirty years of service with the multi-national mining company INCO Ltd. There she held managerial positions in legal administration as well as public affairs. In retirement, Catherine has more time to pursue her interests in travel, theatre, and reading. She is actively involved in Scottish country dancing as well as being a member and past president of The St. Andrew's Society of Toronto. Her involvement at Yorkminster Park has also increased to include being a Church Connector and member of the Women's Executive and attendance at both the Tuesday morning Bible study and Afternoon Mission Fellowship groups. Catherine is a woman of deep faith with an assurance that God is always there, with her in her life.

Janice and Alan Brisco, who were received to membership in February, will also be welcomed.
