INTROIT – Hymn to St. Cecilia

Herbert Howells

Sing for the morning's joy, Cecilia, sing, in words of youth and phrases of the Spring, walk the bright colonnades by fountain's spray, and sing as sunlight fills the waking day: till angels voyaging in upper air pause on a wing and gather the clear sound into celestial joy, wound and unwound, a silver chain, or golden as your hair. Sing for your loves of heaven and earth, in words of music, and each word a truth; marriage of heart and longings that aspire, a bond of roses, and a ring of fire. Your summertime grows short and fades away, terror must gather to a martyr's death; but never tremble, the last in-drawn breath remembers music as an echo may. Through the cold aftermath of centuries Cecilia's music dances in the skies, lend us a fragment of the immortal air, that with you choiring angels we may share a word to light us through time-fettered night, water of life, or rose of paradise so from the earth another song shall rise and meet your own in heav'n's long delight. INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. (sung Amen)
