YPBC DISCIPLESHIP AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Genesis in Four Movements

Genesis transforms the history of a small, vulnerable kingdom at the juncture of three continents into a history of the world and humankind. The story is a 'salvation' history, for its original audience believed its true outcome was dependent on present and future events; therefore Genesis is a preface to the present.

WONDERFUL NEWS FROM OUR GLOBAL PARTNER - RUPEN DAS, LEBANON

We are truly rejoicing that the Poverty Study that Rupen has just completed has come to the attention of the National Cabinet of Ministers in Lebanon. The National Cabinet has asked for Rupen's assistance in the programming that they are also planning to address poverty issues in Lebanon. This is truly significant for both this work and for the overall relationship of the Lebanese Society for Educational and Social Development, (our STEP partner), to the government, as a civil society contributor to Lebanon. We are so grateful to the people of YPBC who have been praying for this important initiative. Your ongoing prayers will be deeply appreciated.

'More Than Enough' Children's Mission Project

A joint project sponsored by the Board of Mission and Children's Ministries

"More Than Enough"..... With an awareness that we have much more than most people in the world, the Children's Ministry and Board of Mission launched a mission project in February 2011. We wanted to give to a ministry in Lebanon, supporting our STEP partner, the Lebanese Society for Education and Social Development (LSESD).

The children's and youth department of the LSESD runs camps to help children who come from very difficult situations. Some are abused, while others are from orphanages or are street children. We designated our funds to help there.

The total amount collected for the camps was $3,825.31! We were delighted to present the cheque to Gladys Haddad, director of the Baptist Children's and Youth Ministry last Sunday.

Thank you for the contribution you made. It will make a difference in the lives of children and youth in Lebanon!

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name !
Let angels prostrate fall ;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call ;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

4 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall ;
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6 O that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall,
Join in the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all !

733

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

2 Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

3 The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset, and the morning
That brightens up the sky;

4 The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one.

5 He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God almighty,
Who has made all things well.

Cecil Frances Alexander, 1818–95.

MATT. xxvi. 26.

COME, risen Lord, and deign to be our guest;
Nay, let us be Thy guests; the feast is Thine;
Thyself at Thine own board make manifest,
In Thine own sacrament of bread and wine.

2 We meet, as in that upper room they met;
Thou at the table, blessing, yet dost stand;
“This is my body”: so Thou givest yet;
Faith still receives the cup as from Thy hand.

3 One body we, one body who partake,
One Church united in communion blest;
One name we bear, one bread of life we break,
With all Thy saints on earth and saints at rest.

4 One with each other, Lord, for one in Thee,
Who art one Saviour and one living Head;
Then open Thou our eyes, that we may see;
Be known to us in breaking of the bread.

G. W. Briggs, 1875-1959.

182

CROWN Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark ! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own :
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy chosen King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown Him the Son of God
Before the worlds began ;
And ye who tread where He hath trod,
Crown Him the Son of Man,
Who every grief hath known
That wrings the human breast,
And takes and bears them for His own,
That all in Him may rest.

3 Crown Him the Lord of life,
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife,
For those He came to save :
His glories now we sing,
Who died and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring,
And lives that death may die.

4 Crown Him the Lord of heaven,
Enthroned in worlds above ;
Crown Him the King to whom is given
The wondrous name of love :
All hail, Redeemer, hail !
For Thou hast died for me ;
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.
