WILLIAM MADDOX

William Maddox is a performance graduate of Queen's University at Kingston, Trinity College and the Central Academy of Music, London, England. Mr. Maddox is a Fellow of a number of learned societies for musicians, the Canadian representative for The Academy of Saint Cecilia, The Guild of Musicians and Singers, and is the Founding Registrar of The Honourable Company of Organists. He has appeared in recital throughout Canada and internationally, including appearances at Roy Thomson Hall, St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York, the Royal Parish Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London, Washington National Cathedral, and at the Sao Bento Organ Festival in Sao Paulo, Brazil. In addition, his recitals and recordings have been heard on nationally-broadcast programmes of the CBC and American and Brazilian Public Radio. Mr. Maddox is actively involved as a consultant to many churches regarding the tonal design and console appointments of their new instruments. Mr. Maddox began his duties as Yorkminster Park Baptist Church's fourth Director of Music in 1996. This evening's recital is his 430th solo organ recital.

Mr. Maddox is assisted at the console by Ms. Sharon L. Beckstead.

THE CASAVANT ORGAN

The Casavant organ of Yorkminster Park Baptist Church was installed in 1928, and was the gift of Lieutenant Governor Albert Matthews and Mrs. Matthews. It is located in the largest pipe chamber in the City of Toronto, measuring 68' wide, 24' deep and 35' high. It was completely rebuilt by Casavant in 1965 under the direction of Lawrence Phelps, and a new console was installed in 1975; additional ranks have been added since 1986. The stoplist of the organ may be found on the Church's website, www.yorkminsterpark.com.
